

Privacy Statement LegalFling

Introduction

1. The website LegalFling.io (hereafter "the Website"), the mobile application "LegalFling" (hereafter the "App") and the brand LegalFling are owned by LegalThings B.V., a limited liability company under the laws of the Netherlands, headquartered in (1076 GR) Amsterdam on Burgerweeshuispad 201 (hereafter "LegalThings").
2. LegalThings attaches great importance to the responsible handling of personal data of users (hereafter "Users") that LegalThings collects via the Website and the App.
3. LegalThings processes personal data of Users carefully and with due observance of the provisions of the Dutch Personal Data Protection Act or, as soon as it enters into force, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
4. In this Privacy Statement, LegalThings informs Users about the way LegalThings processes their personal data and how they can control this process. This Privacy Statement applies to the services offered via the Website and the App.

Article 1: Explanation of personal data and specific goals for the processing thereof

Personal data

1. LegalThings collects the following personal data (hereafter "Personal Data") pertaining to Users, that can or may be used to identify or contact those Users:
 - Account Credentials. We require you to provide an email address and password to use the App. In the future, we may also ask you to provide your phone number for account authentication purposes.
 - Profile Information. We collect Personal Data from you. For example, in the App, we collect information that you voluntarily provide, such as your photo, display name, email address and password.
 - Sexual preferences. You have the option to indicate the sexual preferences "Safe Sex", "BDSM" and "Photos and videos" and "STD free" when liaising with another user. We do not share these sexual preferences with any third party service advertisers or third party service providers other than companies that host data on our behalf (e.g., Amazon Cloud) and only in encrypted form. In addition, we do not use STD status for advertising purposes and do not share this information with advertisers.
 - STD Status. From the request and subsequent rejection of an "STD Free" sexual preference, the STD health status of a User may be deduced. We do not share this information with any third party, any service advertisers or third party service providers other than companies that host data on our behalf (e.g., Amazon Cloud) and only in encrypted form. In addition, we do not use STD status for advertising purposes and do not share this information with advertisers.

- Feedback/Support. If you provide us feedback or contact us for support we will collect your name and email address and possibly other Personal Data, as well as any other content that you send to us in order to reply and address any issue. If you contact us for support, we may also collect and retain certain technical diagnostic data, such as your phone model.
 - Third Party Tracking. Our advertisers also use their own cookies or other tracking technology which may collect information about you within the App. We do not control use of these tracking technologies.
2. This Personal Data is mostly stored locally on User's device. To the extent that it is collected by LegalThings, it is retained for at most 4 hours (see article 6 hereafter). The Personal Data is at all times subjected to the protection proclaimed in this statement.
 3. LegalThings is at all times responsible for the management of the Personal Data provided by each User and will make every effort to protect these Personal Data. In the event of a data breach, LegalThings will immediately inform the User of that event via the email address known to it and make every effort to prevent further distribution of these Personal Data.
 4. The User has the right to at all times ask for and receive the Personal Data provided by him / her to LegalThings in an orderly manner from LegalThings ("right of access"). On the first request of a User, LegalThings will forward his / her Personal Data to a third party to be designated by that User ("right to data portability") or remove it entirely from its system ("right to be forgotten").
 5. Any questions that a User may have regarding his Personal Data can be asked to privacy@legalthings.io. These questions will be answered within 2 working days at the latest.

Objective

6. LegalThings requires Personal Data from a User in order to provide that User with the functionalities of the App. The main functionality of the App is to indicate explicit consent before engaging into sexual activity. The User may choose to indicate further information regarding sexual preferences, that may enhance his or her experience of the App. Indicating this additional information is facultative and omitting this will not render the App useless. LegalThings will not use Personal Data for any other purpose, unless the User has explicitly given permission for another use of these Personal Data.

Permission

7. To receive, process and use Personal Data of a User, LegalThings requires the User's permission. This permission is granted by a User by agreeing to download and use the App.

Fraud, infringement or other unacceptable behavior customers

8. If necessary, LegalThings will use Personal Data to investigate, prevent and counter fraud. Upon request, LegalThings will hand over Personal Data to the relevant judicial authorities or other investigative services or involved third parties, if it is obliged to do so by virtue of the law, a court judgment, or if this is necessary to prevent offenses or wrongful conduct.

Article 2: Transfer to third parties

1. LegalThings does not give Personal Data of Users to third parties.

Article 3: Data security

1. LegalThings makes use of appropriate technical and organizational security procedures, among other things to ensure that unauthorized persons do not gain access to Personal Data and to prevent the loss, unlawful use or modification of Personal Data.

Article 4: Availability and modification of your data

1. Users can request access to their Personal Data at any time. Users may also request that their Personal Data be changed or deleted by sending an e-mail to privacy@LegalThings.io.

Article 5: Cookies

1. LegalThings uses no cookies on the Website and in the App.

Article 6: Retention period

1. LegalThings stores Personal Data for a period of 4 hours after your last visit to the App, unless LegalThings is obliged by law to keep personal data longer.

Article 7: Change to Privacy Statement

1. LegalThings reserves the right to amend this Privacy Statement. Every modification will be announced via livecontracts.io. By making use of livecontracts.io after making changes you agree to a modified Privacy Statement.

Keep an eye on this page for all changes.
